STOLEN.

HORSE STOLEN.—On last Tuesday night, about 11 o'clock, from my lot, my riding HORSE. I followed him as far as Holly Springs and Lafrange. The thief offered him for sale in both the livery stables at Holly Springs. I am inclined to think he will make for the Mobile and Ohio Railroad. Said horse is a large bay, 17¼ hands high, very broad across the hips, a little larger on the left hip than the right, left hind foot white, broad flat forehead, walks and trots well, and a No. 1 looper, very short body for a horse of his size; on the left shoulder is a brand M, and J. P. under it, and a J. on the left hip; saddle and harness marks around his girth, a scar on one of his ankles. I don't recollect which; mane a little worn by collar. I will give Fifty Dollars for the recovery of the horse or any information so that I will get him again, or One Hundred Dollars for the thief and horse. W. I. BONDS. Sardis, Miss., October 1, 1868. oct9 tw

BY TELEGRAPH.

[FROM OUR SUNDAY'S EDITION.]

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 24.—The Tribune's New Orleans special of the 22d inst. says outrages and murders are increasing throughout the State. Last night a mob of disguised men broke into the jail at Carrollton, and killed two negro prisoners. The Evening Picayune says no one can blame them.

At a large fire at Gretna last night, a disturbance occurred, in which three blacks were killed and several wounded, the rest flying to Algiers and the swamps. This morning a large number of white men crossed from here. Gen. Rousseau has stopped the ferryboats, and sent a company of infantry to assist the one hundred policemen who were there in preserving the peace.

The Evening Times says the long impending conflict seems fairly commenced. Gen. Rousseau has requested two additional regiments. At 9 o'clock an armed mob of 400 men had ordered the Metropolitan Police to leave Gretna.

In the county of Madison, N. C., the Conservatives were holding a mass meeting and barbecue to-day, when a riot occurred between the whites and blacks. The negroes were driven off the ground, but no one was killed. Some persons were bruised. Whisky caused the trouble.

Deaths for the past week in the city, 329; marriages, 190; births, 213.

Six thousand dollars in currency was bid to-day for a seat at Stock Exchange.

The Post says that a well known head of a banking house was arrested to-day in Bleeker street, for striking his wife in the face because she insisted upon following him up town. They were taken to the stationhouse by the police, where they were reconciled, and left for home in a carriage.

The examination of Rosenberg, charged with forgery of naturalization papers, commenced to-day, and considerable evidence was given. Friday night closed the business of naturalization here. According to figures in the hands of Democratic and Republican officers, the former have issued 9000, the latter 2070. They are undoubtedly under-estimated. The Tribune says 20,000 naturalizations have been made.

Gen. Blair will address the Democracy of this city next Tuesday evening.

It is stated that Seymour will speak in Brooklyn next week.

Hon. John Hoffman, referee in the case of the Nicaragua Transit Company against Com. Vanderbilt, to compel the latter to pay the former $3,000,000, which has been pending since 1850, awarded the company $1,850,000. The major part of the claim was for good-will money received by Com. V. from the Pacific Mail Company and is disallowed.

The jury in the case of Cornelius M. Garrison vs. Gen. Mahone, rendered a verdict for the plaintiff, yesterday, for $2500. The suit was for damages, on account of the seizure of a steamer by Mahone when he commanded the rebels at Norfolk.

The perjury case of McHenry, who is alleged to have falsely testified in the Rollins case, has been postponed one week.

A private dispatch from San Francisco states that the entire loss in the city from the recent earthquakes will not exceed five million dollars. A dispatch to the Herald says the damage will not exceed three million dollars, and there is hardly a structure or building in San Francisco but is more or less strained.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, October 24.—The Republican has a special from Little Rock, which says the report of the assassination of Congressman Hinds, and the wounding of Brooks is distrusted. It further states that the Radical party defeated both Hinds and Brooks of the nomination to Congress. Both were disputed, and were making a canvass, arraying the negroes against the Radical Central Committee, Rice and Company, and were capable of doing the Radical party great injury. The Radicals charge the killing on the Democrats, but their endeavor to fix it on them will be fruitless, as the Democrats had everything to hope from the defection of Hinds and Brooks, which would eventually have been disastrous to Radicalism. It was to the interest of the Democrats to preserve their lives; it was to the interest of Rice and Company to extinguish them. Their death would be a loss to Democracy but gain for Radicalism.

The death of both disposes of dangerous malcontents who were influential with the negroes, and leaves the negroes completely under the control of the Radical ring.

On the 20th fifty negroes attacked the town of Dardanelle, firing into the houses of the whites. The whites rallied and drove them out. A peace meeting of the whites was held next day.

The Times says there are ten thousand stands of arms now in St. Louis, purchased by the Governor of Arkansas, and other Southern Governors, but that so far it has been impossible to ship them on any regular boat, or to charter a steamer especially to take them.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, October 24.—The papers refer to the speeches of Johnson and Stanley.

The Times says it believes that in a few days England and America will be united without the ghost of a quarrel.

The Daily News says that Johnson's task in settling matters at variance between England and America is light, for it was nearly completed by Mr. Adams, his predecessor, and referring to a friendly meeting between Johnson and Laird, who built the Alabama, says it applies equally to Semmes, who sailed her.

The Telegraph rejoices in the new era of diplomacy, as exemplified in ministers meeting and discussing in a friendly manner public questions.

The Standard says if the result of negotiations pending between the countries prove futile, it will certainly not be the fault of either of the ministers.

LIVERPOOL, October 24.—Some people stayed away from the dinner given to Reverdy Johnson last night, because Mr. Laird was invited to be present. That gentleman was requested to stay away, but would not. The climax of the banquet was reached when the chairman introduced Mr. Laird to the American Minister. Instantly they grasped hands firmly and shook them cordially, and held each other by the hand while exchanging some words.

MADRID, October 23.—A large meeting was held here to-day, at which speeches were made and resolutions adopted in favor of the abolition of slavery throughout the Spanish dominion.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

CAIRO, October 24.—Up, City of Alton, 6 a.m.; Lexington, 7 a.m.; Marble City, 8 a.m. Down, Lady Gay, 5 p.m; Belle Memphis, 8 p.m. River fell three inches.

CINCINNATI October 24.—Departed, Rob Roy, for New Orleans; Clifton, for Memphis. Seven feet three inches in the channel.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, October 24.—It is rumored here that W. G. Kirkham, Bureau agent for northeast Texas, was killed near Boston, Texas, on the 18th.

Gen. Howard's annual report of operations of the Freedman's Bureau has been completed and sent to the Secretary of War.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, October 24.—The meeting at the Nashville Course closed to-day with three races. The first purse of $200, mile and a quarter dash, was won by Conlisk's Little Mack, over four competitors. Time—2:15¾. Second race—purse $400, mile heats, best three in five, six entries, was won by Conlisk's Larkin, winning four heats. Time—1:49; 1:48¾; 1:49½; 1:49¾. Third race—Association handicap cup $200, mile heats, won by Conlisk's Gilroy in two heats. Time—1:49; 1:46¾.

The State Grand Encampment and Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows meet in this city next week.

ALBANY.

ALBANY, N. Y., October 24.—On the Hudson River Railroad last night, near Greenbush, the smoking car and two passenger cars were thrown from the track and smashed to atoms. About forty persons were injured, several seriously; a lady, supposed to be from Erie, Pa., was killed. John Davidson, of Lyons, N. Y., died at the Delavan House this morning. W. D. Murphy, of Cortland, was badly hurt; also Mrs. Adolphus, of Auburn. C. A. Bailey, of Rochester, also was injured. Several others were injured, and are at the Delavan House.

A LETTER from Andalusia says: "Much hostile feeling prevails against the priesthood, who all belong to the fallen party, and it is to their baneful influence over the Queen that her present unpopularity is to be chiefly attributed. The 'vicario' here at first refused to give up the keys of the church to allow the bells to be rung, but, being told that if he did not the doors would be forced, he gave in. At Seville the Jesuits were allowed twenty four hours to leave the city and their building has already been confiscated and made into a school for the children of the poor. The Seville revolutionary committee say that they will have freedom in education, and that they hope soon to see Spain occupy the place she should fill among civilized nations. At Port St. Marys, opposite Cadiz, there is a college for young priests; they were all (twenty-four in number) packed into an open boat and sent adrift, but they were picked up by a vessel passing."

—If you have balky horses it is your own fault and not the horses', for if they do not pull true there is some cause for it, and if you remove the cause the effect will cease. When your horse balks he is excited, and does not know what to do. When he gets a little excited, stop for five or ten minutes; let him become calm, and as soon as he is over his excitement he will, in nine cases out of ten, pull at the word. Whipping and slashing and swearing only makes the matter worse. After you have gentled him a while, and his excitement is cooled, take him by the bits; turn him each way a few minutes as far as you can; pull out the tongue, gentle him a little, unrein him, then step before the balky horse, and let the other start first; then you can take them anywhere you wish. A balky horse is always high-spirited and starts quick; half the pull is out before the other starts; by standing before him the other starts first. By close application to this rule you can make any horse pull. If a horse has been badly spoiled you should first bitch him to an empty wagon and let him draw it around for a while on level ground; then put on a little load and increase it gradually, caressing as before, and in a short time you can have a good work horse.—Pennsylvania Farm Journal.

Getting at a Secret.

The doctor was curious and suspicious as to the cause of the young lady's sickness. He drew a lancet from his pocket to bleed her, but at the moment he pressed the vein he exclaimed:

"Ah! mon Dieu!"

"What is the matter, Monsieur?"

"Mademoiselle, I had nearly killed you!"

"Killed me?"

"Listen!" (here he drew a lancet from his pocket) "here are two lancets; the first is for wives, the second for maids. You see how necessary it is to be careful in the use of surgical instruments. You are a maiden, of course?"

"Certainly, Monsieur."

"Well, if I bleed you with the wife's lancet, I would kill you—and vice versa. Now, Mademoiselle, hold your arm—this is the right lancet!"

"Doctor!"

"Mademoiselle?"

"Take the other one."

—A sawmill in operation is at any time a very interesting sight. Sensational and exciting becomes the scene when a man is strapped at a critical moment on the log to be sawed up. This is the ingeniously contrived effect in Daly's new drama, The Red Scarf, which has been produced at the Park Theater, Brooklyn, in excellent style. The scene is laid in the Aroostock region, and Ike Partington and the Dame are very properly introduced as well-known New England characters. Mr. Queen played the first and Mrs. Howard the latter, with much success. Miss Sallie Partington, for whom the piece was written, appears to much advantage as the heroine.

RATES REDUCED.

Hereafter we will furnish, to regular subscribers, the DAILY APPEAL at $10 per annum, and the mammoth WEEKLY APPEAL (the oldest paper in the Southwest) at $2 50 per annum. Mindful of the demand for cheap newspapers, and determined that the public of this region shall have no excuse for an exclusive patronizing of journals published in other cities, we make a reduction that renders our daily and weekly issues as cheap as any papers published in the country.

Of the WEEKLY APPEAL we can confidently assert that at $2 50 a year it is the cheapest paper published in the North as well as South. In size the sheet is 33-by 52 inches, comprising 40 columns of reading matter, embracing literary selections, poetry, all the news of the day, telegraphic and local reports, and commercial and river reports. We challenge the press of the United States to produce a cheaper paper at this price; and yet those subscribing in clubs of two or more may enjoy it at $2 per annum. Now is the time to subscribe. Those subscribers whose terms of subscription have expired should renew at once. Postmasters acting as agents will be allowed the usual discount of 10 per cent. on single subscriptions. Send in your names gentlemen.

REGISTER.

Capt. SEARS, Registar for this county, having been supplied with the necessary blanks, will open his office for the registration of white voters to-day and on Wednesday, commencing each day at 10 o'clock a.m.

We conjure every man in Shelby county who, under existing laws can do so, to register. The rights, the liberties of our people are in the scale against tyranny, sustained by ignorance. We cannot afford to lose one vote. Our enemies, with such advantages over us as control of registration, the disfranchisement of a large proportion of our best people and the despotic ignoring of the rights of whole counties by BROWNLOW, must be met with all our available force if we would be successful. Every man has a duty to perform on election day. It will be the duty of those who cannot vote to see that those who have registration papers do vote. It is equally the duty of non-voters now to assist those who are indulged by BROWNLOW and his Legislature with the inestimable privilege of voting, in securing their certificates. We hope that every man in Memphis, and in the Eighth District will make it his business—make it a matter of business, as necessary as the earning of daily bread—to register, if he can, and to see that the indisposed and tardy do their duty. It cannot be urged too strongly upon the people to register. REGISTER! REGISTER! REGISTER!

GOVERNOR SEYMOUR.

In another column we publish the speeches delivered at Erie and Cleveland by Gov. SEYMOUR. His progress, thus far through the country, has been a continued ovation worthy of his fame as a statesman, and his exalted character as a private citizen. The people everywhere along the reute turned out en masse and demanded from him such expression as limited time at stations, and his exhausted physique would admit of. They wanted to hear from their candidate. They wanted to be enlightened in the simple but forcible language of the foremost man in the Democratic party. They desired, too, to cheer him on in his present course, and show by their respectful greetings and enthusiasm that they approved of the judgment and discretion that have dictated a brief canvass, only justifiable in the exigencies now upon the country.

The speeches we give in the APPEAL of this morning will be found as full of thoughtful, considerate and forcible sentences as the finished effort of the Governor at Buffalo. We commend them to our readers, and especially the business men of our city, of the Republican party.

INFAMOUS RADICAL SLANDER.

We ask the attention of any Irish Catholics of Memphis who lean towards Radicalism, if unhappily there be such an one, to read the following extract from the editorial columns of a leading Radical paper, and then say if he can by any possibility associate himself in political fellowship with the infamous maligners of a priesthood as pure, as honest, and as efficient in their work as any in the land. The Radicals endorse this:

"The country has survived the Irish emigration, the worst with which a country was ever afflicted."

"The Irish fill our prisons, our poor-houses," etc.

"Scratch a convict or a pauper, and the chances are that you tickle the skin of an Irish Catholic at the same time—an Irish Catholic made a criminal or a pauper by the priest and politician who kept him in ignorance—in a word, a savage, as he was born."

"He has all the while been priest-ridden."

"The fat, sleek, rosy-gilled liars and scoundrels (consciously such) who have kept him in ignorance, robbed him of his pence, and given him, after many sprinklings of holy water, what they call passports to heaven—but he is Teddy O'Sullivan still."

TO YOUR TENTS, OH! ISRAEL.

From the Nashville Union and American.]

We commend to general circulation by the Democratic press of the country, and to the earnest attention of our Israelitish fellow-citizens, the following manly and pointed letter of one of the most estimable members of that faith in this community, and a most reputable gentleman. It is instinct with the just indignation of one who witnessed the execution of the infamous "Order No. 11," and bears testimony to the fact that Gen. Grant was present and coolly looked upon the outrageous scenes he inaugurated. It is a sufficient refutation of the plea of Mr. Moses, of Illinois, who, in advising his fellow-religionists to caress the hand that so wantonly trifleted them, affects a meekness that their great leader out of Egyptian bondage never attained to, and lays himself liable to the suspicion that his boasted magnanimity is but mingled pusillanimity and corruption. Mr. Levy appeals to the Jewish people who have become incorporated into the American nation, by their votes in November, to rebuke the odious stigma and injury sought to be inflicted upon them in this proscriptive military edict, and to vindicate the fame of their adopted country[] by refusing to participate in the elevation of its highest trust of one so narrow of soul and so meanly intolerant as its author. He adduces other facts, too, going to prove that the price of cotton in Grant's department fluctuated mysteriously under the influence of this order, and leaving the irresistible impression that one who could be induced to issue this vindictive edict of banishment, might not be wholly insensible to pecuniary considerations.

The profound indignation which this act of ruthless and unnecessary military tyranny has excited amongst the Israelitish population, is natural and just. It was a disgrace to the American arms and name. It was a revival of the persecuting bigotry of the middle ages. The man who could conceive it is not fit to be the Chief Executive of a people whose institutions guarantee civil and religious liberty, and if the Hebrews in America will make themselves the instrumentality of preventing that consummation they will have struck a great blow for their race throughout the world, and done the cause of a free government a service, which in due time will redound to their emancipation from the thraldom of prejudice under which they have so long labored. It is their duty to themselves and to the farmer suffering to organize once, and throw their strength in the breach against the advance of this audacious spirit of intolerance, whose representative seeks the high post of Chief Magistrate of the Republic. The Israelite who would vote for Grant under this deliberate official insult to his race, would coin his soul for drachmas. We believe there are but few such.

NASHVILLE, October 19, 1868.

To the Editors of the Union and American:

Allow me through your columns to answer the letter of Adolph Moses, Esq., of Quincy, Ill., published recently in the Cincinnati Commercial, taking it for granted that the publication of it was intended for the conversion of the Jews, in other words, to reconcile them to the infamous order No. 11 of Gen Grant.

If such were the intentions of the writer and publishers, they will find themselves as badly mistaken as those who were sent out for their spiritual conversion, not because the Jewish heart is closed to conviction, but because he is too independent in thought and action, and cannot be made a tool in the interests of any faction. It is this independence of the Jewish character that has brought persecution upon him in ages past; and it was this independence of the few Jewish traders in Grant's department, who did not wish to join the "Ring" for mutual benefit that brought down upon them Order No. 11.

In order to show to the American people at large, in whose pretended interest the order for the expulsion of the Jews was issued, I will state that a few days previous to the promulgation of the order, Gen. Grant's father, with many other notable characters in the cotton trade, made their appearance in Jackson, Tenn. The cotton market in New York was at that time very firm and advancing, so that it left a good margin to the buyer by paying forty cents a pound for the article at any point on the railroad in Grant's department. But mark the change of a few days. The next day after the order was issued, cotton could not find a buyer for over twenty cents a pound, as it was then in the "Ring's" hands, and the farmer was compelled to take that or run a worse risk. A subordinate officer at that time in command of Corinth, Miss., went so far even as to issue an order forbidding buyers to pay more than twenty-five cents. Whether all this was done from patriotic motives, I leave the public to determine; and as this will undoubtedly meet the eyes of many who were witnesses to these transaction, I hope they will bear me out in what I state to be no exaggeration, but facts which can be proven by hundreds of respectable citizens, who were in Grant's department at the time.

But it is contended by Gen. Grant's friends that he was not the author of the order, and that it was never executed.

In answer to these I will state, that previous to Order No. 11, a similar order was issued by the General in command of Jackson, Tenn., ordering the Jews of Jackson to leave within twenty-four hours. Gen. Grant had his headquarters there at the time. I can well remember how honorable men were driven out of Jackson, for no earthly offense except they were Jews; and Gen. Grant was puffing away his cigar at the Railroad depot witnessing the outrage; and shortly after that came Order No. 11, from headquarters, embracing the whole Department.

Now let the philanthropist pause and ask the question, are we really living in the 19th century, or have we been asleep and woke up in time to read the edict of Ferdinand and Isabella? For the edification of true Republicanism, I will give the order in full;

"General Order No. 11.

"The Jews as a class violating every regulation of trade established by the Treasury Department, also department orders, are hereby expelled from the department, within twenty-four hours from the receipt of this order by Post Commanders. They will see that all this class of people are furnished with passes, and required to leave; and any one returning after such notification will be arrested and held in confinement until an opportunity offers of sending them as prisoners, unless furnished with permits from these headquarters. No passes will be given these people to visit headquarters for the purpose of making personal application for trade permits.

"By order of Maj.-Gen. Grant."

Now come with me to the cities of Memphis, Jackson, Holly Springs, Corinth, Columbus and Paducah, and witness, as I have witnessed, the horrible outrages perpetrated under that order. See a brutal soldiery dragging and insulting inoffensive citizens, hurrying them off at the nearest railroad station, like brutes, in box cars, compelling them to leave their hard earnings behind, to the mercy of an unprincipled set of army followers, and allowing no explanation at headquarters, (because the order prohibited it expressly)—all for no imaginable offense, except their names indicated them as Jews.

I shall never forget the fiendish sneers of our enemies, how exultant they felt when they could say, "we have caught another Jew!" Oh! how must the flush of shame light on the American countenance, when he comes to that part of his country's history—that a General representing this free and enlightened Republic could be guilty of such an outrage upon human rights! Where is the Jew who could so far forget his ancestry, his race, his own self-respect—nay his honor—who would by his vote help to elevate a person to the highest position in the nation, who has tried to disgrace him in the eyes of the civilized world. The party who needs his vote will be unscrupulous enough to obtain it by every means at command, but the honorable man of both parties will detect the individual who is two cowardly to resent an insult, and this question must be looked upon by every fair minded person in an individual light.

Mr. Moses seems to be reconciled to Grant's order—first from satisfactory correspondence between himself and the General; but his main reason for espousing the cause of his enemy is that he wishes to be magnanimous. Now, we would like to see the persuasive arguments used by Gen. Grant in his letter to Mr. Moses, which could so completely subdue an avowed enemy and make him his friend and supporter. It might be the means of making more converts to the Radical faith, of more Jews, but who being Americans imbued with American principles are equally opposed to the elevation of a man to the Presidency, who entertains such prejudice against the whole class of citizens as expressed in Order No. 11. Then it was the Jews as a class—next may be the Catholics as a class. If Gen. Grant has seen fit to satisfy Mr. Moses, there are many thousands of Israelites in the United States, who would equally like to be satisfied, and as long as Order No. 11 stands unexplained by the author, we must, by all means at our command, prevent him from doing us further harm.

But Mr. Moses wants to shine out as Moses the magnanimous. Does he think sensible people will accord him any honor for his magnanimity? People are not apt to apply that term where it does not belong. He says in the [illegible] an injury—it is magnanimous to forget a wrong, but it is cowardly to receive unresentingly an insult, and if Mr. Moses as a "prominent lawyer" has in view a vacancy, to be filled by Grant, I can assure him Grant will be no exception to other gentlemen, not to particularly admire an apostate.

It was not Herod's unfaithfulness, but his extreme friendship and faithfulness to the cause of Mark Anthony, that secured him the friendship and throne from Augustus.

But I hope for the honor of the American Republic there will be enough left to defeat Grant without Mr. Moses' aid and influence, and if Republican journals mean to parade Mr. Moses, as a Democratic Israelite who has abandoned his race and party to support Gen. Grant, I will tell them that I have always been a Republican, but shall cast my vote this time for Seymour and Blair, against Grant, from a solemn conviction that I owe it to my self-respect as an Israelite.

SEYMOUR.

His Speech at Erie, Pennsylvania.

CLEVELAND, October 23.—Gov. Seymour and party arrived from Buffalo at 7 p.m. He was received at all the places where the train stopped, by considerable assemblages, and spoke at Dunkirk, Westfield, Erie, Ashtabula and Painesville. His Erie speech was as follows:

I did not expect to meet here this great concourse of people. I have gone out to speak to the citizens of this country upon the questions which now agitate the public mind. It is said that I am an interested man, and so is every man who pays taxes and helps support this Government. As a candidate I am not to be looked upon as one perfectly disinterested, although I am most earnest and sincere in the views I advocate. But how would it be if none of those who have an interest in this contest were to take part in it? Who would have voted for the Republican ticket a little while since, if every office-holder had stayed away from the contest? [Cries of none, none.] I find when I look over the list of Government officials that they number more than 60,000. I contend that with the impartial people, who have no other relationship with this Government except as good tax-payers and citizens, the Democratic party will have a great and commanding majority. [Cheers.] I cannot address you now at length upon the questions of the day. I am soon to leave here, and time will not admit my doing so. I can only give you one or two words of exhortation.

All are now about to perform a great and solemn duty, and one that is to be far reaching in its consequences. Whatever men's views may be, they should exercise them fearlessly, unscrupulously and honestly, and no man can afford to cast this vote for any consideration but for the good of his country, for upon this election hangs many things which concern not only its present but its future welfare. Let us lay aside passion and prejudices, and address ourselves to questions in a calm, dispassionate and patriotic method. I impeach no man's patriotism because he does not think as I think. I impugn no man's motives because he cannot see things as I see them. I only exhort all men, whatever their political views may be at this time, to reflect well when they think on the solemn duties of the day, as to what is for the best interests of the country. [Cheers.] We are prone to indulge too much in abuse; let us not act upon our prejudices against each other; let us not be influenced by the picture that may be drawn of the candidates for office. For I may say for my political opponent, as well as for myself, that no man ever contemplated the duties of the office of President of the United States without being filled with the most earnest desire to do justice to himself and to do his duty to the land which we all love. [Cheers. A voice, "that's true, sir."]

I cannot speak to you longer. I am accompanied by more eloquent men, who may address you on the questions of the day. I am wearied with my exertions. Wherever I have been our citizens have poured out as they have done here, because there is something in the condition of the Government that makes thoughtful men anxious. I trust that so far as the Executive office is concerned, if the people see fit to elect the Democratic nominees, they may not come short in serving the country as they would wish. To-day I bid you goodbye, my friends, of whatever party, and may God in his mercy bless this great land of ours for our own good, and for the good of those who are to come after us. [Cheers, and a voice, "thank God, we have got a candidate to say something."]

SPEECH AT CLEVELAND.

Fellow Citizens: I regret that I have but a very few moments to stand before you to-night. There is much that I would be glad to say to citizens of Ohio upon questions which so greatly affect the prosperity of our common country and the interests of all classes of people and matters in which most of you my friends are so deeply concerned. I come before you invested with an especial interest, because I am a candidate for your votes. [Enthusiastic cheers and applause.] I should mistrust my own conclusions upon the weighty subjects connected with this Government if they had been born amid the excitement of a heated political canvass, but they were not four or five years ago when I looked carefully into the resources of our National prosperity. Our metropolis is great because it is the grand center of the commerce and trade of the country. While we who live in the interior are enriched by great channels of communication which pass through, connecting the East and West. Our prosperity is based on the prosperity of the whole, and especially upon that of the mighty West. [Cheers.] I stand before you to briefly allude to the conclusions I formed long since, not as a public officer, but as a private citizen of this nation. I must necessarily be very brief, as my time is short. In a few years the Government wiped out all our State banks, it burdened them with such heavy taxation that they could not live, and took upon itself to give to the people the currency required for business. When the Government destroyed our currency it gave us a new one, and it was the duty of that Government to see that it was so appropriated that it would subserve the best interests of the whole country. It gave Massachusetts $57,000,000, and we find, upon comparison, that New York, Ohio and other States received much less than their share. It gave Rhode Island $70 to each citizen, and to Ohio $8 to each citizen. Now, if a great deal of currency is good for the people of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, why is it not just as good for you in Ohio. [Loud cheer, and cries of "Yes, yes, that's whats the matter."] I ask the business men of your beautiful city of Cleveland to look into these things if they have enterprise and judgment; and I ask whether this important question is not of vastly greater importance than to merely win political victories. [Cheers.]

WASHINGTON.

Letter from President Johnson.

WASHINGTON, October 25.—The President has addressed the following letter to Gen. Ewing:

Dear Sir: In a recent conversation on the subject of finance, you expressed a desire to be furnished with some of the leading facts then mentioned touching the national expenditures and public debt, I now comply with your request, regretting, however, that other and more pressing matters have prevented me from more closely illustrating the absolute necessity for immediate reform. In 1776, our national indebtedness was proclaimed. After an exhausting, bloody struggle of seven years, our independence was, in 1783, acknowledged by the parent govt. In 1787 the Federal Constitution was framed, and in 1789 the Government went into operation under its provisions, burdened with a debt of $75,000,000, created during the war of the Revolution. Immediately upon the organization of Congress measures were devised for the payment of the national obligations and restoration of the public credit, and when in 1812 war was declared against Great Britain, the debt had been reduced to $45,000,000. Then it was largely increased by the three years' struggle that ensued between the two nations, until in 1816 it had reached the sum of $127 000,000. Peace again established, provision then was made by the earliest practicable legislation for this indebtedness. In order that it might not become a permanent encumbrance on the people under wise and economical legislation, the entire amount was paid in a period of twenty years, and the extinguishment of the national debt filled the land with rejoicing, and was one of the great events of President Jackson's administration. Even after its payment, a large fund remained in the treasury, which was, for safe keeping, deposited with the several States on condition that it should be returned when required by public wants. In 1849, the year after the termination of an expensive war with Mexico, we found ourselves involved in a debt of $66,000,000, and this was the amount owed by the Government in 1860, just prior to the outbreak of the rebellion. In the spring of 1861, the war of the rebellion commenced. Each year of its continuance made an enormous addition to the debt. So when the spring of 1865 came, and the nation successfully emerged from the dreadful conflict, the obligations of the Government reached the vast amount of $2,600,000,000. They had not, however, attained their highest point, for when the Army and Navy had been paid, the Volunteer forces disbanded, and the Navy largely reduced, it was found in February, 1866, that our indebtedness exceeded $2,800,000,000. Having thus referred to the indebtedness of the Government at various periods of its existence, it may be well to call attention to a brief statement of facts connected with its expenditures from the fourth day of March, 1789, to the thirtieth of June, 1867. The gold and public expenditures were $1,700,000,000; although during a period of seventy-two years, this amount seems small when compared with the expenses of the Government during the recent war of four years duration; for from the first of July, 1861, to the thirtieth of June, 1865, they reached the enormous aggregate of $3,300,000,000. An investigation into the disbursements since the first July, 1865, further shows that by adding the expenditures of the last three years, that the estimated cost of administering the Government for the year ending the thirtieth June, 1867, we obtained the sum of $1,000,000,000, as the amount required for the four years immediately following the cessation of hostilities, or nearly as much as was expended during the seventy-two years that preceded the war. It will be seen that from 1791 to 1861, our public debt was at no time more than $127,000,000. It will also be perceived that while prior to 1861 the largest annual disbursement was not quite $74,000,000, for the year 1855, the expenditures during the last three years of peace have successively been $520,000,000, $346,000,000, and $393,000,000; $372,000,059 being the amount which he estimated would be necessary for the year ending on the 30th of June next. In making this comparison we should remember that during the long interval of 1789 and 1861, the Government was frequently required to make expenditures of an extraordinary character. Large sums were paid to Indians as annuities and the purchase of their lands; extensive wars were waged against powerful tribes; Louisiana was acquired from France at a cost of $150,000,000; Florida, in consideration of $500,000, was ceded to us by Spain. California became part of our possessions on payment to Mexico of $15,000,000, while for $10,000,000 our Government secured from Texas the Territory of New Mexico. During these periods of our history we were also engaged in wars with Great Britain and Mexico. The first was waged against one of the most powerful nations of the world; the other was made additionally expensive by the prosecution of military operations in the enemy's territory. The startling facts thus concisely stated, suggested an inquiry as to the cause of the increase in the expenditures and indebtedness of the country. During the civil war the maintenance of the Federal Government was the one great purpose that animated our people, and that economy which should always characterize our financial operations was overlooked in the great efforts of the nation to preserve them its existence. Many abuses which had its origin in war, continued to exist long after it had been brought to a triumphant conclusion, and the people having become accustomed to a lavish expenditure of public money for an object so dear to them as the preservation of the integrity of their free institutions, patiently bore taxation of the most oppressive character. Large sums of money continued to be extorted from them and squandered in useless extravagant expenditures. Enormous expenditures are demanded for purposes the accomplishment of which would require a large standing army, against the provisions of the Constitution, and the subjugation of the States to negro domination, with a military establishment costing, in time of peace, $100,000,000 annually, and a debt, the interest on which draws from the Treasury each year nearly $150,000,000, making a total of $250 000,000 for these two items of expenditure alone. Retrenchment has become an absolute necessity or bankruptcy must overtake us and involve the county in its paralyzing rusts. If, however, a wise economy is adopted, taxes must soon be materially reduced, not merely for the benefit of a few, but in the interest of all, revenue would remain sufficient for the administration of the Government as well as for such a reduction of the public debt as would in a few years relieve the people from millions of interest now annually drawn from their resources. The idea that the debt is to become permanent should be discountenanced as involving taxation too heavy to be borne, and payment of an amount in interest every sixteen years equal to the original sum. The gradual liquidation of the public debt would by degrees relieve the large capital invested in the coin and the securities of the Government, which, seeking remuneration in other sources of income, would add to the faith of the nation, upon which it is now a great drain. This immense debt, if permitted to become permanent and increasing, must eventually be gathered into the hands of a few, and enable them to exert a dangerous and controlling power in the affairs of the Government. The debtors would servants of the lenders; the creditors the masters of the people. It is our boast that we have given freedom to three millions of slaves. It will be then our shame that by their own toleration of usurpation and profligacy, 40,000,000 of people have enslaved themselves, and exchanged slaveholders for new task masters in the shape of bondholders and tax-gatherers. Since the vital issue whether Congress and its arbitrary assumptions of authority shall supercede the supreme law of the land, and whether in time of peace the country shall be controlled by a multitude of tax-collectors and a standing army, the one almost as numerous as the other, and making the debt a permanent burden upon the productive industry of the people, or whether the Constitution, with each and all of its guarantees, shall be sacredly preserved; whether now, as in 1789 and 1816, provisions shall be made for the payment of our obligations at as early a period as practicable; so the fruits of their labor may be enjoyed by our citizens rather than be used to build up and sustain a monied monopoly at home and abroad. The contest is not merely who shall occupy the principal offices in the people's gift, but whether the Federal Constitution should be observed and maintained, in order that our liberties may be preserved, the Union of the States restored, that our Federal system may be established, political strength may be renewed, the [illegible] diminished, that taxation be lightened and the public debt forevermore extinguished, that it may not injuriously affect life, prosperity and morals of the nation. Believing that for the redress of the great wrongs and the correction of the many abuses under which the country is laboring, we need look to the people, and that in them is our hope,

I am, very truly, your friend,

ANDREW JOHNSON.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, October 25.—The origin of the disturbance was a difficulty between the members of negro and Democratic clubs, a number of which were parading the streets in various parts of the city. A number of negro clubs passed down St. Charles street to Canal, very noisy and disorderly. The Picayune states that the negro clubs abused and insulted the Democratic clubs marching in their rear, and that the first shot fired came from a negro club, wounding slightly a white man named Richardson. At all events a general fight began on Canal street, between Bienville and Baronne, in which a number of shots were fired. The fight continued for three blocks, when the negroes fled. Two negroes were killed between Baronne and Dryadas on Canal, and one dangerously wounded. One negro boy was crushed to death under foot. Another negro was killed on the corner of Canal and Basin; one or two others farther out on Canal. About midnight scattered firing was heard in all directions. No white men were killed on Canal street, though several were wounded and taken home by friends. A white man was shot and killed while quietly standing near a negro club room on the corner of Camp and Thalia street. Another white man was killed and horribly butchered with an ax [illegible], on Melpomene street, by negroes. A white man was accidentally shot by his own friends, on St. Charles street. Coroner Roache, of the first district, held eight inquests this morning—three whites and five blacks. Another dead negro reported in the second district, making nine fatal. The white men killed were each of them over a mile from the first disturbance. The disturbance began about ten o'clock. At eleven Canal street was crowded with excited whites, who quietly dispersed when a squadron of cavalry appeared on the scene. The stores on the corner of Baronne and Canal are marked by bullets as if by skirmish firing.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, October 25.—Registration in this county has closed, and the boards of review have adjourned. The number of qualified voters on the lists, etc., are 31,937, and the number rejected 697. A letter from Laramie, Wyoming Territory, says that on the night of the 18th and morning of the 19th, four notorious thieves and desperados were killed in that place by a vigilance committee, and several others of less notoriety ordered to leave town. Advices from Cooper county say that on the night of the 14th, an old and respectable citizen named Mapes, living nine miles northwest from Otterville, was dragged from his bed and murdered. On the following day Mrs. Mapes, her brother, named McIntosh, Thos. Good and a boy named Bennett were arrested as implicated in the murder, and placed in charge of a constable and guard of ten men, to be conveyed to Brownsville. While en route to that place the guard was surprised by a party of men, and McIntosh and Good hung. Mrs. Mapes and the boy were then taken to jail.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 25.—A special cable dispatch states that loyal Americans and English friends of the United States are galled at the recent proceedings of Minister Johnson in Liverpool, and think him anxious to go out of his way to make silly speeches, and that he went too far in allowing himself to be introduced to Laird, and greeting him in a friendly manner, and that he fraternizes too much with rebels and English enemies, misrepresents the sentiments of the majority, and places the United States in a humiliating attitude.

Robert G. Gamble and Mrs. Hughes, charged with poisoning Gamble's wife, whose examination has been in progress for some time, were yesterday honorably acquitted.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, October 25, p.m.—The Evenier National, the Democratic national organ of this city, says Ferdinand has declined the offer of the crown of Spain. The writer is certain the Duke Montpensier would accept it.

LONDON, October 25, p.m.—Dispatches received to-day state that the authorities of Sydney have positive proof that the shooting of Prince Alfred was the result of a deeply laid plot, the details of which will be given in a few days.

FRANKFORT, October 24, p.m.—5 20s closed firmer and higher at 78¾@78¾.

HAVRE, October 24, p.m.—Cotton is firmer; tres ordinaire 138 francs per cwt.

SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 24.—No more earthquakes since yesterday morning, and the excitement has entirely subsided. The value of real estate is apparently unaffected by the disaster. Work on new buildings is rushed forward with redoubled energy, business seems as promising, and men enter into contracts with as little hesitation as ever.

CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, October 25.—The statement published in several Eastern papers, and the dispatches from Washington and New York, that Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton advised or desired a change of candidates on the Democratic ticket, or that he ever wrote or telegraphed on the subject, is authoritatively denied.

—Jarrett & Palmer presented Undine at the Academy, Brooklyn, four nights, and two nights last week at their Niblo's Garden. The days, or rather nights, of the Black Crook and White Fawn were happily recalled. Bonfanti, Schilke, Schieger, and all the former favorites, reappeared in scenes familiarized by their plays. Miss Alice Harrison, Miss Ludlow, Miss Lillie Eldridge, and Mr. Atkins were the principal performers.

DAMNABLE OUTRAGE BY NEGROES.

From the Mobile Register:

One of the most horrible and revolting outrages which has lately come under our notice, occurred on Wednesday last, an old lady being robbed and ravished within a mile-and-a-half of the city, and in broad day light, by three negro fiends.

The circumstances of the case, as related to this reporter, at police headquarters, are as follows:

Wednesday morning last Mrs. Phelps, an old lady sixty years of age, residing near Wragg's Swamp, about three miles from town, between the Dauphin and Government street roads, came to the city early in the morning for the purpose of making a few purchases. On her return home with a sack of meal, and accompanied by her son, a little boy of thirteen, she was stopped about 10 a.m., when about half a mile from the city, by three negroes, who relieved her of her meal. After doing this the negroes consulted together for a short time, after which one of them seized their victim, and dragging her to the side of the road, perpetrated a most diabolical outrage. The boy had a pistol presented at his head, and was made to keep quiet under threats of instant death. Hearing a gun fire a short distance off, and the attention of the negro villains being distracted, the boy managed to make his escape, and proceeded as fast as his legs could carry him in the direction of the report. After going a short distance, he fell in with a young man named John Lodine, who was out gunning.

Relating to him what had befallen his mother, Mr. Lodine promptly accompanied him, and upon arriving at the scene of the outrage found the negroes gone and the old lady lying in the middle of the road in an unconscious state. She was taken to her house and her wants attended to. The negroes, finding that their deeds of lawlessness and outrage, in nine cases out of ten, go unpunished, are daily growing bolder, and effective measures should be at once adopted to mete out to the black scoundrels who are running riot through the community, perpetrating deeds that would make devils blush, a punishment that would effectually deter others from like offences.

The matter was referred by the Mayor, in writing, to the Radical Sheriff, Granger, and no action has yet been taken by him to ferret out the guilty parties. By delay the negro villians will be allowed ample time to effect their escape and avoid the punishment which they so richly deserve.

THE DAILY APPEAL is delivered by faithful carriers, Seven times a week for twenty-five cents.

TO-MORROW EVENING at the Greenland Opera House, Professor Haselmayer will open his series of entertainments in necromancy, prestigitation, and legerdemain. From the press of Mobile, where the Professor is now exhibiting, we learn that he his fully up to the promises which are made for him in the bills and advertisements. His Asiatic necromantic illusions are described as being truly wonderful, as are also the performances of his magic drum. This last instrument is said to beat spirit rapping, or any of the representations of the "mediums." Another pleasant feature of his entertainments are the trained canaries, which he has accompanying him, and which play the "Adventures of little All Right." The "magic paper mill," or, the Treasury Department outdone, is another curious and wonderful trick, which never fails to produce great astonishment and amusement. The Professor has exhibited his art in presence of almost all the crowned heads of Europe, and has always given great satisfaction, so we look for a really pleasant and entertaining time when he comes along.

ANSWER TO REV. DR. ROGERS.

Letter from "Churchman" Explaining and Defending Dr. Wheat's Conduct.

MEMPHIS, October 25, 1868.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

In two of the city papers of to day I read a card from Rev. J. W. Rogers, in which he reflects severely upon the Rev. Dr. Wheat, Rector of St. Lazarus, for writing a letter to the clergy here, by the command of the Bishop of this Diocese, in regard to the new church established by Mr. Rogers; and also for accepting the Rectorship of St. Lazarus in the absence of Mr. Rogers, the former Rector. In the absence of Dr. Wheat, I desire to say to the public that as for the first charge, Dr. Wheat in writing the letter simply obeyed the Bishop as he was sworn to do, without deciding for himself whether or not it was lawful. As for the second charge, I think it comes with very bad taste, especially when Dr. Wheat's poverty is brought in, for it Mr. Rogers will stop to consider, he will remember that prior to the organization of the Southern Orphan Asylum (so-called) his condition was little better, until the members of St. Lazarus raised his salary to $3000 per annum, and stood by him during his imaginary persecution by the Radicals as well as the Bishop. But up came the society which was to furnish everything for the Southern orphans, and our Rector with a pleiomoric purse, concluded to take a look at the Old World, leaving us in charge of the venerable Rector, whom he now accuses of ingratitude. In company with all the others who had stood by the Rev. Mr. Rogers from the time he occupied the Chamber of Commerce up to his departure, I rejoiced at his prosperity, but then came those "merry letters," which caused every one of us to hang our heads in very shame. Soon after the Rectorship of the Church was tendered to Dr. Wheat. This he flatly refused, stating that he could not do so in the absence of the Rector. Twice again was it offered, and as often refused; and at last it was only after Dr. Wheat had been assured that under no circumstances would the former Rector be allowed to resume his charge, that he accepted it. Nearly every communicant—all, so far as I know—of the Church, are responsible for his action in accepting the Rectorship, and if there is any ingratitude in the matter let it rest where it belongs, and not upon the head of that gray haired Priest, whose every action refutes the charge.

CHURCHMAN.

RABBI TUSKA---DR. FORD.

End of the Newspaper Controversy.

The Rabbi Proposes a Public Debate and Challenges the Doctor to Meet Him.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

Since you intimated to me personally that you will after this limit the space for the controversy between Dr. Ford and myself to half a column, and then to a quarter; and since so small a space is insufficient to do justice to the subject in dispute, I take the liberty to make the following proposal to Rev. Dr. Ford. Let him appoint some evening for a public debate between him and myself, at any public house or church, and I will convince the intelligent community of Memphis of the truth of the following six propositions:

1. That Dr. Ford's display of Hebrew learning in his article of this date proves his deficiency in the knowledge of Hebrew, even more conclusively than the blunders in his previous articles.

2. That he cannot even read correctly the Rabbinical commentary of Kimchi, notwithstanding he quotes the same.

3. That he either does not understand or misrepresents Dr. Wise's "Essence of Judaism."

4. That there is no mystery in the creed of Judaism.

5. That "faith," as opposed to reason, is not enforced in the Hebrew scriptures.

6. That the Old Testament contains no word expressing the idea of faith as used among orthodox Christian denominations.

If the Doctor accepts this proposal, he will please notify me of the time and place, and bring along his Hebrew Bible, grammar, lexicon and Kimchi's commentary, that the public may judge between him and me.

In conclusion, allow me through your columns to inform the "profane," who do not read the Memphis Baptist, that this weekly, which has copied from the APPEAL all former articles relating to our controversy, in its issue of yesterday, contains a lengthy reply of Dr. Ford to my last article, but does not publish that article itself, under the plea that it would "burden" its columns. I should think it would, as some of my Christian friends stated to me that my last article was rather "heavy" on an orthodox paper like the Baptist. No doubt Dr. Ford's reply, though filling two columns and a half, was not so "burdensome."

Respectfully,

SIMON TUSKA.

Memphis, October 24, 1868.

An Absurd Problem.

RALEIGH, TENN., Oct 21, 1868.

Will you, or some of the arithmetical experts of your numerous readers, have the kindness to answer the following question, which has considerably vexed and divided our little circle, viz: I offer my horse at 200 per cent. less than he cost me, and he cost forty dollars. Now what should I get? Thirteen dollars and thirty-three and a third cents, or nothing, with the horse thrown in and forty dollars additional, or neither? Then what? Respectfully,

SEVERAL READERS.

The answer to "Several Readers" is very simple. 200 per cent. on $40 is $80. The only way therefore that a horse that cost $40, could be gotten rid of for 200 per cent. less than he cost, is by giving him away, and making the party who takes him, a present of $40. If, as you say, you should have sold him for $13 33⅓ you would have disposed of him at 33⅓ per cent. of what you gave for him.

THE FIRE SATURDAY NIGHT.—The fire which occured about half past nine o'clock on Saturday night, and of which we had a notice yesterday morning, did not commence as we stated in Crosby's drug store, but in the grocery store of A. M. Wood, at Central Point, and was caused by an explosion of a lamp. It spread very rapidly, and soon consumed the drug store and dwelling of Dr. Jackson. From Dr. Jackson's premises, the flames spread to four small houses adjoining, which were also consumed. The flames then crossed the street, sieging upon and destroying two houses on the opposite corner, occupied by Mr. Lagomarsino. The property of Mr. Wood was partly insured only, and that of Dr. Jackson was not insured at all. The exertion of the neighbors combined with those of the firemen and police, succeeded in saving most of the household goods from all of the burnt houses, but nothing of the stocks of groceries was saved.

A BUSY man is a locomotive and life a track. Every night he drives into "the house" and stops. Every morning he is fired up anew, and away he goes, switching off in one direction and then in another. In this routine of business he forgets that the physical organization is of the most delicate kind. If a hard iron locomotive needs constant care, and to be well oiled up and rubbed off every day, how much more necessary is it that all men and women should use Plantation Bitters, which are the ne plus ultra of everything which is necessary to keep the system in a perfect tone of health.

Register! Register! Register!

Capt. Sears, the Registrar, informs the public that he will give the white people of Memphis two days more in which to obtain their certificates of registration—to day and Wednesday. The office will be opened each day at ten o'clock. It is the high and imperative duty of every man who has not registered, to avail himself of these last chances. No white man can afford—the white man's party cannot afford to lose a vote in the present struggle. Go to-day and register.

TO THE CITIZENS OF MEMPHIS:

The office of this Company is now open at No. 18 MADISON STREET for the transmission of messages, at reduced rates, to all points reached by its wires. In tendering the citizens of Memphis another facility for the transmission of messages, by which not only lower rates are obtained, but greater dispatch and promptness, and answers secured quicker, it should be borne in mind by all who use Telegraph wires, that only by sustaining a competing line can a continuance of lower rates be maintained. This is so self-evident that the Southern Pacific and Atlantic Telegraph Company confidently expect such full and steady patronage as will justify the establishment of this office at Memphis, and low rates.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FINANCE.

ew Tennessee bonds have fluctuated considerably in New York recently, but are in much favor by certain capitalists of that city. The cause assigned is that these parties have received assurances from Nashville as to the policy to be adopted concerning such of our railroads as have not paid up the interest due the State. At the next meeting of the Legislature these parties have been secured that the delinquent roads will be ordered to be sold and the ring which has invested heavily in new bonds will become the purchasers, paying in bonds. Capitalists in New York seem to have got such a hold upon Tennessee as to enable them to control the action not only of the Governor, but of the Legislature, the reason why is perhaps not generally understood. It is explained by the fact that during the troubles which the Brownlow administration, by its insufficiency and lack of ability to control the finances, brought upon the State during the summer, these capitalists upheld its credit in new York. But for their exertions, Tennessee bonds would have run down to low figures after Gov. Brownlow had convened the Legislature in extraordinary session to pass the bill authorising him to call out the militia, and declare martial law in any portion of the State.

A gentleman in this city who has had $60,000 of State bonds locked up in New York for the past ten years, having lost all faith in the State, has ordered his bonds to be sold and declares that never again will he invest a dollar in these securities until the political affairs of Tennessee have undergone a change.

The New York money market is reported to be in a panicky condition, but we think there is no real danger of anything like a crisis. Our dispatches to-night will, no doubt, report the matter adjusted.

Local finances are unchanged. Currency comes in daily in large amounts and is disbursed almost as fast as it arrives. About 30 per cent. we presume of all the currency received goes to the interior in the pocket of the planter, who has brought his cotton to the city to sell, or to agents, at the various inland points, who are purchasing on account for our merchants. Deposits are increasing rapidly. Some of our banks report an increase of 50 per cent. since the quarterly statement appeared on the 5th inst.

City bonds are firm, but we could learn of no operations. Buyers are numerous at 52 cents, but no sellers.

A small sale of Memphis and Little Rock bonds at 50 cents was reported. Other stocks and bonds are nominally unchanged.

City Scrip is very firm, with an active demand. Sales at 78½ were made to dealers, and 80c would be paid for small pieces readily. We quote as follows:

Gold in New York opened at $1 35, went down to $1 34½, and fell at the close to $1 34¼.

	Buying.	Selling.
City Scrip	78 @ —	81 @ 83
County Warrants	60 @ 62	64 @ 66
Police Scrip	80 @ 81	83 @ 86

COTTON.

The Liverpool market opened firm today; Upland 10¾; Orleans 11d; and at the close also firm, with Uplands 10¾@10¼; Orleans 11@11¼d. Sales 15,000 bales.

In New York, at the opening, the market was quiet, but firm. It closed the same, with moderate demand. Low Middlings 24½c; Middlings 25½c; Orleans 25½c; Good Middlings 26½c. The gross receipts for the week, at that port, was 20,000 bales. Weeks' sales 16,000. Receipts since Sept. 1st, 21,240. Stock 15,000. Receipts at all U. S. ports 54,000 bales.

Our market was firm and moderately active during the day with sellers, in many cases, willing to await the opening advices of Monday. Among the principal sales were 24 bales good ordinary 21½c; 70 good ordinary to low middlings at 21½c; 23 low middlings at 22c; 61, 32, 16, 14, 20, 175, 51 and 20, at 22c; 62 at 22½c; 175 at 22½c; 70 at 22½c; 60 at 21½c; 100 middlings 22½c; 50 at 22½c; 5, 6 7, 20, 26, 60, 11, 23 at 22½c; 9 at 22½c; 27 at 22½c; 10 at 22½c; 48 at 22½c; 20 strict middlings 23c; 6 at 23c; 11 at 23, 13 good middlings 24c.

There were several bales of superior cotton contesting for the prize at the Fair to-day. It is a matter of no little pride, therefore, to our citizens to know that Shelby county has been awarded the premium. Mr. John Shipp presented the best bale. It was raised, we learn, on Big Creek, in this county, and was of very fine staple, and was so perfectly ginned that one would imagine it had been carded.

TRADE.

The attendance at the Fair to-day was very favorable indeed and altogether it has proven quite a success. Had the weather early in the week been at all favorable there could be no doubt that the attendance would have exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the public-spirited gentlemen who have made such a noble effort to revive this institution in our midst. The articles on exhibition were numerous and all of them possessed advantages which were readily appreciated, making it difficult in many cases to decide which should be awarded the premium. The display of cattle, hogs and horses, was not so large as could have been wished, but it must be remembered that our people have not been able to pay the attention to this matter which its importance deserves, but have been struggling ever since the war to make bread alone, and in many cases this has been difficult to do.

Saturday, which is never an active day in our general markets, was only moderately so to-day. One or two arrivals of steamers from above brought supplies which have been on the way some time and prices of meats were a fraction weaker, but as a general thing we have little change to report.

The tobacco trade of Louisville amounted to 30,000 hogsheads during the past tobacco year. This merely included the leaf tobacco sold in that market. Lorillard, the great manufacturer, has located at that point and will establish a manufactory immediately. What steps have our merchants taken to make Memphis a tobacco mart?

The recent decision in regard to the distillation of whisky does not relieve the difficulties of many of our small distillers. The law requires forty-five gallons of beer to be taken as the equivalent of a bushel of grain, but these small distillers require from fifty to seventy five gallons. Until the law is changed on this point, these distillers cannot make such whisky as they are willing to make, and are not running.

The amount deposited in the seventh collection district to the credit of the Treasury of the United States, for the quarter ending September 30, 1868, was two hundred and one thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight dollars and eighty-two cents ($201,758 82). Of this amount one hundred and sixty-three thousand four hundred and eighty-two ($ 63,48) was derived from tax on whisky. Of sixty seven distilleries in operation last year in the Lexington district, but four are now running.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

MEMPHIS, October 26.—Weather clear and lovely. River falling steadily but slowly. We report 5 feet from Cairo to St. Louis, and 4½ feet in the Ohio to Louisville. The rise in the latter stream is very light, not amounting to over 3 inches up to yesterday at Louisville The Arkansas is about stationary, with 34 inches to Little Rock. White river is falling, but has plenty of water to Jacksonport.

Arrivals.

Steamer Bismarck, New Orleans.
" Agnes, St. Francis River.
" Des Arc, White River.
" M. Hambleton, St. Fr. River.
" Natoma, Friar's Point.

Departures.

Steamer Bismarck, St. Louis.

In Port.

Agnes, Des Arc, Romeo, Mollie Hamble on, Natoma, Argos.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Des Arc came in with a good passenger trip, 394 bales of cotton, and fifty head of cattle. She reshipped eighty-six bales of cotton at Delta for New Orleans.

We look for heavy cotton receipts to-day. The Liberty, Hambleton and Natoma, will show up largely.

The Agnes came in yesterday from the mouth of St. Francis. It has not yet been decided what she will do.

Josh Throop went to cohuren yesterday. The Argos, Capt Sebrel, leaves to-day for St. Francis river. She will ply between the cut off and Madison street, connecting with the Mollie Hambleton and the Little Rock railroad.

The Romeo will leave for Cairo and Evansville to-day. She has nearly a full load of cotton engaged, Capt. Josh Throop is master.

The Lady Gay, Capt. Burke, will pass down to-day for New Orleans. She is an elegant passenger boat.

The Virginia, which was reported aground near the wreck of the J. J. Roe below Cairo, will be in port to day, and will leave at 12 m., for Vicksburg and New Orleans. Capt. Holcroft is Master, and Charley Shuttz, Clerk.

The Atlantic's barges are reported hard aground at Pawpaw, with no prospect of getting off, as the river is falling rapidly.

The Agnes, Capt. Scott, leaves on Tuesday for Cairo and Louisville. She will take a load of cotton, is light of draught, and will not be delayed by low water.

The gay Natoma, Capt. Lee, will back out to-morrow for Friar's point. She makes every intermediate landing, and is a popular local packet.

The Mollie Hambleton, Capt. Tom Bowman, leaves to-morrow for all points on St. Francis river. Mr. Paine is her chief Secretary.

The fine steamer Des Arc, Capt. John Elliott, leaves to-day for White river. She goes to Jacksonport direct. The President of the Steamboatmen's Club, of this city, Mr. Matt Glass, is her chief clerk, and will be found a capable and obliging officer.

The Luminary, Capt. Luker, leaves for Vicksburg and Natchez to-day. Lee Finney is her clerk. She is a good passenger packet and makes all way landings.

The gay Belle Memphis, Capt. John Crane, gets away at 4 p.m., for Cairo and St. Louis. She connects with the northern and eastern trains. Billy Benker, a noble Hessian, is Secretary.

The splendid Magenta, of which Frank Hicks is master, will leave on Wednesday for New Orleans. She is Memphis institution, and as such deserves our patronage. John Brooks and John Sullivan are clerks, while old "Hole in the Wall," a celebrated Indian chief, cousin of "Hole in the Day," makes passengers fall in love with the rest of making by feeding them in his sumptuous style.

The splendid United States mail packet Liberty, Capt. Rice, backs out to-morrow for all points on White river. She connects with the Little Rock train and puts passengers through in no time. Milt Harry and Charley Sharpe are clerks.

The Westmoreland, Capt. Rusk, passes up to-day for Louisville and Cincinnati, making all way landings.

Mr. John Simmons, formerly of the house of Mart. Walt & Co., went upon an expedition into Mississippi, and there committed matrimony. We congratulate the bride upon her choice, as in our whole circle of acquaintance we know of no man whom, were we her brother, we would sooner choose for her protector than our friend John.

The fine little steamer Ozark, one of the best low water boats afloat, will back out to-day for Pine Bluff and Little Rock. She is a handsome passenger packet, and is prompt as a clock. Harrison Bissell is master, and Ed Outlaw is clerk.

The General Quitman will prove a total loss. At the time of her sinking she was bound to New Orleans with a cargo consisting of 1700 bales and about 300 sacks of cotton, and a large passenger trip. The Vicksburg Herald gives the following account of the accident, which occurred at New Texas Landing, above Bayou Sara:

"The boat made the usual landing, and was just ready to back out, when the mate informed the captain that she was rapidly sinking. Lines were taken ashore, and the boat made fast, and passengers and crew escaped without the slightest accident to any one. When the Magenta passed the water was up to her cabin floor aft, while the bow was out, and the general impression was that she was breaking in two, and of course there was no possibility of saving her. The General Quitman was about ten years old, and was one of the most popular boats that was ever in the Vicksburg and New Orleans trade. Her name was a household word from New Orleans to Memphis, and her arrival and departure from any port was always the occasion of excitement. We could not learn particulars as to her insurance, but presume she was fully insured. Capt. Leathers and his popular crew will be afloat on some fine steamer in a few days, taking the place of the 'Old War Horse.'"

NOTICE

IS hereby given that an organization has been effected under a charter granted by the Legislature of Tennessee, November 17, 1846, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Memphis and Arkansas River Packet Company."

JOHN D. ADAMS,
I. M. TEBBETTS,
JAMES L. WILSON,
S. L. HAINES,
HARRISON BLASDEL, } Directors.

The Line of Boats known as the "Memphis and Arkansas River U. S. Mail Packet Company," is merged in the chartered company.

JOHN D. ADAMS, President.
J. M. TEBBETTS, Secretary.

☞ The following boats will each make a trip a week until the new boats of the Company, now being built, are finished; leaving MEMPHIS as heretofore, on MONDAYS and THURSDAYS, at 6 o'clock p.m:

Thursday, St'er W. A. Caldwell, Haines Master.

Monday, Steamer Ozark, Rowland, Master.

From the 1st to the 10th of November the new boats will be finished, and the Company will then run four boats from Memphis to Fort Smith, giving direct communication with all points on the river, the Arkansas river now being in good navigable condition. Passengers and freight are put through to all points on the river without delay, and at reasonable rates.

All persons shipping freight for any point on the Arkansas river from North or East of Memphis, should have their goods consigned to JNO. D. ADAMS, Memphis. Merchandise shipped from New Orleans should be consigned to W. W. JOHNSON, Napoleon, Ark.

JNO. D. ADAMS, President.
